 - a. There are a few interesting changes with Polaris. All numbers are very normal. It has taken time to learn and understand the new system.
5. Friends of the Library update
 - a. The Cookie Walk earned a total of $1,243. Donations related to the raffle basket amounted to $205. This was a very profitable season for the Friends!
 - b. The Annual Meeting will be Saturday, January 14 at 2 PM. The volunteer of the year is Pat Stanczyk, our Treasurer.
 - c. The 30th Anniversary will be in April 2023. We are planning a tea to be held at the Library.
6. Library Department Head's Comments
 - a. The new hours are working well. The programs in 2023 will primarily be high interest—as expressed by our patrons. The plan is to get patrons to come to the Library, and then return again and gain. The staff have developed a “Little Letter Learners” program for three- and four-year old children to help teach the alphabet. There is now an email newsletter, please sign up for it the City's website.
7. Commissioner Comments
